

ASLC Gather Team Report (July 2013)

- Fellowship: Posters of the Crab Feast are by now hard to miss. The date is set - Saturday September 7th. I believe I left about a dozen copies in the xerox machine last night by accident. Feel free to pass them around. John should probably have someone manning a table for ticket sales this weekend or next (I will not be here either weekend).
- Softball: We played 3 games last night and are still alive in the playoffs. Next Tuesday the 23rd, we will fact St. Matthew's at 6:30 at Allen Pond #1. If we win, we will advance to the finals. If we lose, our season is over. Alas, I will have to miss my first softball game in a few years.
- Youth: We leave Saturday morning for New York as a stop-over on the way to Maine. I have never been to Maine with my kids or anyone else's (or ten of them for that matter), and I'm excited about the trip. I have no earthly idea if I will survive this trip with my sanity intact....
