FELLOWSHIP – John Summerlot

- The next themed potluck, on April 19th, will feature "Layered Foods."
  - Fellowship will be providing refreshments for a CONCERT at ASLC on Sun. Apr. 26 at 8:00pm. The CHESAPEAKE CHORALE will present A Chamber Sampler.
  - Dates have been secured and planning is underway for the following Ale Saints events:
    - The 6th Annual Crab Feast, scheduled for the first Saturday after Labor Day, on September 12th.
    - The Oktoberfest, scheduled for the first Saturday in November, on November 7th.
  - Council meetings start early, and the work day ends late...Do you have trouble finding time for the evening meal before heading out to the monthly council meeting? John and I both do, and we thought Fellowship should pick up the tab for a meal together. Let's discuss this item tonight...

Youth – Cindy Austell

- The YOUTH will participate in a PROGRESSIVE DINNER with youth of three other congregations on Sun. Apr. 19. The event begins at All Saints Church with the youth serving appetizers and leading activities to get to know each other.
  - The youth group will host a baked goods and flower sale on Sunday, May 9th. Contact Cindy Austell if you plan to provide baked goods to sell.

Bowie Interfaith Rec Council – Jim Sichelman

- The Spring Softball season has officially started. If anyone knows of a congregation member who is itching to play, send them my way. So far, the team's record is 0-0, with this week's games being rained out.
- The Annual BIRC Bowling Fundraiser brought in $3,500 in proceeds to the Bowie Food Pantry. The next BIRC fundraiser will be the Annual BIRC Golf Fundraiser, scheduled for Monday April 27th. Proceeds from that event will fund 100 % of the scholarships awarded to graduating HS seniors of member congregations. Scholarship applications were due on April 15th.
